

Running Blind

Godsmack

Can't find the answers
I've been crawling on my knees
Looking for anything
To keep me from drowning Promises have been turned to lies
Can't even be honest inside
Now I'm running backward
Watching my life wave me goodbye Running blind, I'm running blind
Somebody help me see, I'm running blind Searching for nothing
Wondering if I'll change
I'm trying everything
But everything still stays the same I thought if I showed you I could fly
Wouldn't need anyone by my side?
Now I'm running backward
With broken wings I know I'll die Running blind, I'm running blind
Somebody help me see, I'm running blind
Running blind, running blind, running blind I can't find the answers
I've been crawling on my knees
Looking for anything
To keep me from drowning I'm running blind, running blind
Running blind, running blind
Running blind, running blind
Running blind, running blind, running blind
