

Burn Bright

My Chemical Romance

So give me all you've got,
I can take it.
We've walked alone in your city lights.
Did you make it?
We lit the fire and it's burning bright.
Did you take it?
Kissed all the boys in your city lights.
Did you make it?
Left all the stars in your city nights.
Can you fake it?
I lost my way in your city lights.
Clutching me,
Restore the fire, and it's burning bright. So give me all you've got,
I can take it.
We walked around in your city lights,
'Cause it makes me who I am.
We lit the fire, and it's burning bright.
Not ashamed of what I am,
I took the pills for these empty nights,
'Cause it makes me who I am. They always told me that you never get to heaven,
With a love like yours.
Well if you're lost little boy,
Oh they'll give us both a ride back down, yeah
It's like a chemical burn,
Peeling off your skin, yeah
And when you see your face
Well you'll never be the same again, yeah. 'Cause if you just stop breathing,
I'll stop, I'll stop my heart,
I'll stop breathing too. So give me all you've got,
I can take it.
We walked around in your city lights,
'Cause it makes me who I am.
We lit the fire, and it's burning bright.
Not ashamed of what I am,
I'd trade the world for your city nights.
'Cause it makes me who I am. And it makes me who I am.
And it makes me who I am. And though I missed the chance with this,
I confess that I can't wait until it's gone.
Though I mean this every single day.

Don't go if you've got more to say,
'Cause the world don't need another hopeless cause.
Though it makes me who I am,
'Cause it makes me who I am.
And you made me who I am,
And you made me who I am,
Be afraid of what I am. I can take it.
We walked around in your city lights,
'Cause it makes me who I am.
I'll wreck it all, and I'll do it fine.
'Cause I'll never fade away,
If I steal the fire from your city nights.
'Cause it makes me who I am.
Who I am.
