

Sober

FIDLAR

Oh my God, are you seriously gonna do this right know?

Look, im trying to get better but

I can't do that when every goddamed thing is about you

And why do I have to figure out why I'm like this

And still treat you like a princess

But what about me?

I'm a fucking princess too

So treat me like one

And don't tell me what to do

Ok go ahead

Ok go aheadWhat? you are the one making this whole situation awkward

I'm just asking you

How you are and you say

"Oh i can't be bothered"

What is this? High school?

You said that i'm immature

And suck at my life

Exactly is it's MY life

And you know what? Don't tell me what to doI figured as i got older that life just sucks when you get sober

I figured out when I got sober that life just sucks when you get older

You know what? So what?

I wash my hands from this shit

I don't need you

And I don't need them

And I don't need her

And I don't need him

And it's just incredible

That you expect everyone to be on your schedule

Cause it's always been about you

But now you can't tell me what to doI figured as i got older that life just sucks when you get sober

I figured out as I got sober that life just sucks when you get older

I figured out as I got sober that life just sucks when you get older

I figured out as I got sober that life just sucks when you get older
