

Hello or Goodbye

Christon Gray

Is it hello? Is it hello or goodbye?

Which one am I to say?

I don't wanna be fooled

Into falling in love with you

Will you stay for a while?

It seems like we were just getting to know one another so well

But oh well

Hello always means goodbye

So babe I won't stop telling you everyday how much I need you a round

I know you're up in the sky but I don't know when you'll be back down

I wake up looking for you but I guess it depends on the day

Hello, goodbye

Just tell me which one to say

My mother's voice was soft rain

And my daddy's was more like a hurricane

Saying son you better learn to pray

I'm like, the sun better learn to shine, I'm feeling blind

I been gone for a while

And my daughter's days have been blue and gray

I can see the same story in her eyes
