

Follow You

Holyfire

Deep within this fragile man
Beyond distraction doubt and pride
There is a heart that beats with hope
There is a love I can't explain
And you have broken all my defenses
You've overtaken all my cares
I am consumed by this one ambition
I just wanna follow you.
that's all I want.
that's all I wanna do.
So, I will look through every window
I will follow every burning bush
Until I reach forever
Until I find my home.

And you have broken all my defenses
You've overtaken all of my cares
I am consumed by this one ambition
I just want to follow you.

And you know I have tasted of desperation
and i've walked in unbelief
I have discovered that my completion
Is found humbly at your feet

You have broken all my defenses you've over taken all my cares
I am consumed by this one ambition
I just wanna follow you.

And You know I have tasted of desperation
and i've walked in unbelief
I have discovered that my completion
Is found humbly at your feet

All of my defenses
you've over taken all my cares
I am consumed by this one ambition
Just wanna follow you.
I've tasted, i've tasted of desperation

I've walked in unbelief
And I have finally understand found here humbly at your feet and I just wanna follow you.

I just wanna follow you.

I just wanna follow you.

That's all that's left

I just want to follow

I just want to follow you.

oh,

I just want to follow

You.
