

What If I'm Right

Get Scared

They'd love to call the search off for me to go away just sweep me under the rug then no ones takes the blame they wanna fill my head up and scare me half to death and when i bought what they want I'm there with nothing left how can you stand there and say
with a straight face
that nothings wrong with me
i don't think they've got a clue about whats best for anybody else except themselves I've got a bad bad feeling overwhelming me
what if i'm right?
I've got a bad bad feeling overwhelming me
what if i'm right?
they ask me why i'm nervous? why i appear so tense the pills offset each other so i'm not making sense give me one dosage
to cure dependency if i could ween myself off you'll never hear from me
what if i'm right?
what if i'm right?
paranoia, mass delusion stay confused and in the dark someday things will change self-destruction

debt consumption fear cannot control us all blinded by your greed but we will make you see the factories are burning the medication fades my lungs are finally open and i can finally sleep
what if i'm right?
what if i'm right?(Fatty, was here)
