Admit It

Emf

You and I, you and I, you and I
You and I, you and I, you and IHad a good night, last night
I must admit that I was frightened
But you were cruel
When I awoke, I was enlightenedWill you admit it
Will it show through
Your pure clear eyesWhen will you admit it?
When will you admit you're doing bad things to me?
When will you admit it?
When will you admit you're doing me wrong?
Everything's alrightI'll never say what you were doing
We'll keep it quiet
It's just a thing I need provingWill you admit it
Will it show through
Your pure clear eyesWhen will you admit it?
When will you admit you're doing bad things to me?
When will you admit it?
When will you admit you're doing me wrong?
Each time I fallYou and I, you and I, you and I
You and I, you and I, you and I
You and I, you and I, you and I
You and I, you and I, you and IGood night, last night
I must admit, I was frightened
But you were cruel
When I awoke, I was enlightened
Everything's alrightI'll never say what you were doing
We'll keep it quiet
It's just a thing I need provingWhen will you admit it?
When will you admit you're doing bad things to me?
When will you admit it?
When will you admit you're doing me wrong?When will you admit it?
When will you admit you're doing bad things to me?
When will you admit it?
When will you admit you're doing me wrong?
