Small Favors

Fountains Of Wayne

I have to sit you down
Let me tell you what it?s all about
'Cause I?ve been carrying a torch around
And I?ve forgotten how to snuff it out
And you have been unkind
And that?s a matter I cannot ignore
You have to skirt around the truth sometimes
But it?s time I told you what I came here for
To thank you for all the small favors
I?m thinkin? now, I hope it doesn?t change us
And take us to a time when we were strangers
In a two-station town, you can?t get the train to slow down
Small favors
Oh, to you as sure as she was honest
And now do you remember when you promised
To forgive me someday, the debts that I can?t repay
The debts that I can?t repay
And I cannot forget
You looked at me as if I?d lost a bet
And I hadn?t opened up my big mouth yet
And I thought of crawling back into the plane
And though it?s sad to tell
I still remember how the dry eye felt
Across the curtains in the cheap hotel
Lit up dust clouds in the window panes
And I thank you for all the small favors
I?m thinkin? now, I hope it doesn?t change us
And take us to a time when we were strangers
In a two-station town, you can?t get the train to slow down
Small favors
I?m thinkin? now, I hope it doesn?t change us
And take us to a time when we were strangers
In a two-station town, you can?t get the train to slow down
Small favors
Oh, to you as sure as she was honest
Now do you remember when you promised
Forgive me someday, the debts that I can?t repay
The debts that I can?t repay, debts that I can?t repay
