

Agree to Stay

Liquido

You held my spine
To see me rise
Now taste the silence
A brick of light
Reveals the day
I smell that you went by
I see now
Agree to stay
And spend the night
Don't be alone now
You held my hand
I slipped away
We'd sleep beneath the stars
How i hate being scared
The more i think
The more I do
Still anything
Reminds me of you
I smell your hair
I hear your voice
I feel you
I wish we knew
A place to play
Where no one could find us
You lied to me
The other day
Don't keep it all inside
How I wish I was free
The more i think
The more I do
Still anything
Reminds me of you
I smell your hair
I hear your voice
I feel you
