

Walk Away (Feat. Hi Rhythm Section)

Terrence Howard

The drama, the drama.
The babies, the mamas.
Like, You promised, but you was dishonest
Now you got some trip in your stride
There's only one pimp in this ride
Hop out the car if that is what you wanna do Drop all this drama and do what you gonna do Run 'round the corner until we can rendezvous Make Daddy proud of you, boo Tell you to Walk. Walk. Oo, walk away
Walk. Walk. Oo, walk away There's always a problem when you come and holler and why you keep bothering me?
You up there cryin'
that girl was just lyin'
and I'm tryna get me some sleep.
I was just fine, wasn't paying no mind until you came in talkin' police.
You want the floor, interrupt me once more and you salem aleichem your peace Walk. Walk. Oo, walk away Walk. Walk. Oo, walk away
It's a hustle trying to get all of that cheese that people like, Russell pretty tough, though, with everyone telling you: Please go in the back door.
What's the front for?
Mister, I think you should leave.
What if I don't go?
Then the cops show -- Hands up. Get on your knees.
Turn around, face the floor, put em up. No,
I ain't gonna get on my knees.
That ain't my spot, bro.
I ain't got no warrants or felonies.
So if you hassle, it's a natural

You got a problem, I see, cuz of my afro
let the naps grow.
Mister you gotta freeze.
I ain't gonna tell you no more
I already told you one time
Don't forget that you're talking to me
You are the problem Respect what is mine
Why don't you take your partner and flee? This is the score:
They've got three guns, no four of them
I'm thinking more.
But there may be some more of them, I'm not so sure, at the door that just fallin' in might be gas and some tanks Walk. Walk. Oo-oo-oo, walk away.
Walk. Walk. Oo-oo-oo, walk away. Hey, baby, now you got a dangerous crowd
All the things you do Baby you change the rule Ooo, you drilling out making a scream and shout just a game with you Do what you came to do Baby you walk
