

Everything Turns

Binocular

When everything falls apart
And you can't make out the end
And you live life in the dark
Without pretense to pretend Nobody led you through the darkness
Whenever the changing tides would turn
Nobody told you and reminds you
Nobody ever let you learn That everything turns
Everything turns around
The prince becomes the pauper
And the king becomes the clown So you face another day
With the loneliness inside
But you can't pick up the pieces
When they promised you and lied Nobody led you through the darkness
Whenever the changing tides would turn
Nobody told you and reminds you
Nobody ever let you learn That everything turns
Everything turns around
The prince becomes the pauper
And the king becomes the clown Everything turns around around
I said everything turns around, 'round, 'round
Everything turns around around
I said everything turns around, 'round, 'round The prince becomes the pauper
And the king becomes the clown
'Cause everything turns
Everything turns around The slave becomes the master
And the fool receives the crown
And everything turns Everything turns around
