

Diamonds

Ladi6

Feeling like I just got paid I earned one hundred dollars worth of gas vouchers today working as a government slave When money gets a little bit tight we've been known to work no we never lose sight of the little things its the little things that make it all worth while They say they do it for the love and the money but they're living in the sunlight rich now now I'm working got a daddy turned a blind eye oh just to be so young and in love right and here I stay in the butter churning butter into
diamonds diamonds diamonds ch-churning butter into
diamonds diamonds diamonds Sunny days go and turn to grey how long will it last it seems forever to me I'm judging whether I got a stack of boos and minimum pay call on the credit team to fix it cause we gon' have to miss it nothing but lack of work to blame the shame nothing but lack of work to blame They say they do it for the love
Tell me what would you do if you could make diamonds (if you could make em what would you do) hide the butter in the gutter where nobody could find them (would you hide it would would you hide it) Or would you give me one of them and go and make another (go and make another go and make another) making plans for your friends your fans and your lover (lover lover lover)What would you do if ooh ooh ooh ooh mmm what would you do if ooh ooh ooh oohThey say they do it for the love
