    Mom and dad went to a show
    They dropped me off at grandpa Joe's
I kicked and screamed, said, "Please, don't go"Grandma take me home
    Grandma take me home
    Grandma take me home
    Grandma take me homeGrandma take me home
    Grandma take me home
    Grandma take me home
    Grandma take me homeHad to eat my dinner there
    Mashed potatos and stuff like that
I couldn't chew my meat too goodGrandma take me home
    Grandma take me home
    Grandma take me home
    Grandma take me homeGrandma take me home
    Grandma take me home
    Grandma take me home
    Grandma take me homeShe said, "Why don't you stop your crying
    Go outside and ride your bike"
That's what I did, I killed a toadGrandma take me home
    Grandma take me home
    Grandma take me home
    Grandma take me homeGrandma take me home
    Grandma take me home
    Grandma take me home
    Grandma take me homeAfter dinner I had ice cream
    I fell asleep and watched TV
I woke up in my mother's armsGrandma take me home
    Grandma take me home
