

Simply Seductive

Emile Millar

but losing her edge
true love reminds her
of mother's revenge
chances are you think I'm better off someone else can better get me off including myself
excluding yourself
love is easy come, it's easy go
love ..

Double chin sisters alone in their beds,
one looked so lovely the other near dead.
One listened to what Jesus said, the other what Joe Strummer said.
Which one is left, which one's in heaven
love is easy come, it's go
love is easy come, it's go
love..

poisons wine, bleeds you inside,
changes your mind, again and again and again.
You're so blind but never mind,

love..
love is easy come, it's go
love..
just never mind, just never mind

love, love, love
it's easy come it's go
but losing her edge
mother's revenge ...
