Nine Inch Nails

Everything is catching up with me, I awake to find I'm not at all
Where I should be and it feels I'm getting to the end
And it's hard to figure out what's real and what's pretend
To break from what we're tied to, God knows how much I've tried to
And I am still inside you
And I am still inside you
I escape every now and then
And to think I find myself back here again and again
I used to know who I was until you came along
I return to the only place
I've ever felt that I belong to break from what we're tied to God knows how much I've tried to
And I am still inside you
And I am still inside you
