King Of The Ladies

Extreme

Let me introduce you to my time machine
See my souped up bird spread her golden wings
Going back in black through my neighborhood
My main street middle class Hollywood
Jenny?s all jet-set 'Purple Rain' cassette
Looking like she was the queen of the 80?s
And if I knew back then what I know right now
Yeah, you know I'd be the king of the ladies
If I knew back then what I know right now
You know I'd be the king of the ladies
Yeah, if I knew back then what I know right now
There?d be no ifs, and buts and no maybes
Just an average Joe making minimum wage
Burger flipping on the beach instead of hitting the wave
While the girls walk by with their copper tone tan
Sucker punching the clocks, stop working for the man
Well, there ain't no cure for the summertime blues
Oh Candy, oh would you save me?
If I knew back then what I know right now
You know I'd be the king of the ladies
If I knew back then what I know right now
You know I'd be the king of the ladies
Yeah, if I knew back then what I know right now
There?d be no ifs, and buts and no maybes
If I knew back then what I know right now
You know I'd be the king of the ladies
Yeah, if I knew back then what I know right now
There?d be no ifs, and buts and no maybes
I walked into the dance in the High school gym
This girl with drop dead legs, I?m moving in
You know it must have been the DJ spinning 'Billy Jean'
I tapped Nikki on the shoulder told her dance with me
Was like that scene from 'Grease' the way we bumped to the beat
I had the girl give me the slip, she got away from me
'Cause if I knew back then what I know right now
You know I'd have the pick of the ladies
If I knew back then what I know right now
You know I'd be the king of the ladies
Yeah, if I knew back then what I know right now

There?d be no ifs, and buts and no maybes
If I knew back then what I know right now
You know I'd be the king of the ladies
Yeah, if I knew back then what I know right now
There?d be no ifs, and buts and no maybes
If I knew back then what I know right now
You know I'd be the king of the ladies
Yeah, if I knew back then what I know right now
There?d be no ifs, and buts and no maybes
If I knew back then what I know right now
You know I'd be the king of the ladies
If I knew back then what I know right now
There?d be no ifs, and buts and no maybes
