

My Life Flashed Before My Eyes

The Crips

The wrong time, the wrong place
Your talent scouts my lonely face
Of all the things I can't replace
Your talent scouts my lonely face, yeah

Well, it's alright, although I know you lied
I don't mind, oh
It's alright, although I know you lied
I don't mind, oh

The wrong time, the wrong place
Your talent scouts my lonely face
Of all the things I can't escape
Your talent scouts my lonely face, yeah

Well, I'm alright, although I know you lied
I don't mind, oh
If my life flashed before my eyes
Do you think I'd mind? No

And now, you don't need mine
You let us down, you watched us die
Now, I hang around
With people I don't even know

Well, it's alright, although I know you lied
I don't mind, oh

The wrong time, the wrong place
(It's alright, flashed before my eyes)
Your talent scouts my lonely face
(Do you think I'd mind? Yeah)
