Neon Rebels

Soilwork

Staring through the eyes of a cosmic breed
Through distant skies above the fields
Another face, another dimension
A broken circle of human attentionAround making my way through the desert plains
I'm a legend, a gift from the Gods
Sirens scream there is no rest
A diary of a tragical life in this nestScreaming for victory
Neon rebels will rise
Breaking down the barricades
Nailed to the skiesRiding on the winds at the speed of light
Selfish pride, a rebel's might
Cosmic warfare a taste of my life
A gallery of a lifetime under the knifeAn endless voyage in an endless time
Remind thoughts of an ancient signStaring through the eyes of a cosmic breed
Through distant skies above the fields
Destructive thoughts in a narrow void
Another mission in Galaxy 2001Screaming for victory
Neon rebels will rise
Breaking down the barricades
Nailed to the skiesKilling to stay alive
Madness rules here again
Tear away the golden skies
Neon rebels will reign
