

Honourosis

Unwound

Today's different, different than before, I just tore out the page from the age of the ruin.

I can't honor you, too sick to follow through.

I just wasted too much time, insanity's not worth a dime.

I can't honor you, too sick to follow through.

I just wasted too much time vanity not worth a dime.

Look at me right now.

pay for me, absolve.

Look at me right now.

And all deceits not worth the fucked up mystery.

I 'd follow you around but this time it's history.
