Thinking About You

Ivy

Deep in another dream
Thinking about you
Sailing through the city streets
Thinking about youIts only been a little while
But Im thinking about you
Cant hide another smile
Ive been thinking about youBut I never look back
Never look over my shoulder
And I never react
Cant go where Ive gone beforeNo, I never look back
Now Ive grown so much colder
And you're fading to black
Like its nothing at all
Its nothing at allDeep in another dream
Thinking about you
Feels like the final scene
Thinking about youSave it for a little while
Thinking about you
Time for another smile
Ive been thinking about youBut I never look back
I never look over my shoulder
And I never react
Cant go where Ive gone beforeNo, I never look back
Now Ive grown so much colder
And you're fading to black
Like its nothing at all
Its nothing at allBut I never look back
Never look over my shoulder
And I never react
Cant go where Ive gone beforeNo, I never look back
Now Ive grown so much colder
And you're fading to black
Like its nothing at all
Its nothing at allIts nothing at all
Its nothing at all
Thinking about you
