

Thinking About You

Ivy

Deep in another dream
Thinking about you
Sailing through the city streets
Thinking about you Its only been a little while
But Im thinking about you
Cant hide another smile
Ive been thinking about you But I never look back
Never look over my shoulder
And I never react
Cant go where Ive gone before No, I never look back
Now Ive grown so much colder
And you're fading to black
Like its nothing at all
Its nothing at all Deep in another dream
Thinking about you
Feels like the final scene
Thinking about you Save it for a little while
Thinking about you
Time for another smile
Ive been thinking about you But I never look back
I never look over my shoulder
And I never react
Cant go where Ive gone before No, I never look back
Now Ive grown so much colder
And you're fading to black
Like its nothing at all
Its nothing at all But I never look back
Never look over my shoulder
And I never react
Cant go where Ive gone before No, I never look back
Now Ive grown so much colder
And you're fading to black
Like its nothing at all
Its nothing at all Its nothing at all
Its nothing at all
Thinking about you
