

The Night (2DJ's Remix)

Scooter

Rumble in the jungle!
AAAHHH!Back on the mic I got the sound
Holding you down, down to the ground
Speaking the melody
Who out there got the skills to test me?I've been here for far too long
It's time to break out
It's time to be strongBeats going crazy inside my head
Do you feel alright?
Here comes the night
All my friends are talking to me
What's this love I see?
I know you can make it right
I'm still waiting now
Waiting for the love I need
If you want me too
There's something don't understand
I don't know...Yeah!All my friends are talking to me
What's this love I see?
I know you can make it right
I'm still waiting now
Waiting for the love I need
If you want me too
There's something don't understand
I don't know...
Don't be afraid, it's just my work
Comin' up bringing the words
Soon I'll have ya movin' in time
It ain't my fault, just the lyrics that rhyme
As I chop, change, rearrange
Choose and refuse, cause of fame
Gonna getcha hot like a burning flame
Everything's alright
Here comes the nightAll my friends are talking to me
What's this love I see?
I know you can make it right
I'm still waiting now
Waiting for the love I need
If you want me too
There's something don't understand

I don't know...Yeah!All my friends are talking to me

What's this love I see?

I know you can make it right

I'm still waiting now

Waiting for the love I need

If you want me too

There's something don't understand

I don't know...Waiting for the love I need

If you want me too

There's something don't understand

I don't know...
