Confidential

Teairra MarÃ-

Teairra, I want you Ma, can we do this? Can I trust you? If I take it off would you take it slow? And promise to not let nobody know About nothing, if I come off of this loving It's confidential If I take it off would you take it slow? And promise to not let nobody know About nothing if I come off of this loving It's confidential If I (If I) Let you get me (Let you, let you) Take off my jeans (Let you, let you) You're gonna be The first one to score And if I let go (Let go, let go) Act irresponsible (Oh no, oh no) After all this is over Will the joke be on me Though my body's saying (Take me) I got my mind saying (Same thing) Slow down, don't be fooled By the things you say If I take it off would you take it slow? (Oh) And promise to not let nobody know (Nobody know) About nothing if I come off of this loving (It's so confidential) It's confidential If I take it off would you take it slow? And promise to not let nobody know

(Nobody know, oh) About nothing if I come off of this loving It's confidential I'm so close to giving you all of me But I can't be sure that you gon' stay with me I know that I said that we were meant to be But I can't say the timing is right for me Your swagger is right, our vibe is strong You're beggin' to see me with nothing on So many of my girls are home alone Wishing that they would have remained strong Though my body's saying (Take me) I got my mind saying (Same thing) Slow down, don't be fooled By the things you say If I take it off would you take it slow? And promise to not let nobody know (Promise that you won't betray me) About nothing, if I come off of this loving (No, it's so confidential) It's confidential If I take it off would you take it slow (No) And promise to not let nobody know (Nobody know) About nothing, if I come off of this loving (Woah, it's so confidential) It's confidential I like you I mean I really like you (Nothing, loving) I just don't know (Nothing, loving) If I'm ready If I take it off would you take it slow? (You feel me) And promise to not let nobody know About nothing, loving (You willing to wait?) If I take it off would you take it slow? And promise to not let nobody know About nothing, if I come off of this loving (Nothing)

It's confidential
