Blue

Bigbang

English Translation:

The winter had passed
And the spring has come
We have withered
And our hearts are bruised from longing

(iâ€™m singing my blues)
Used to the blue tears, blue sorrow
(iâ€™m singing my blues)
The love that i have sent away with the floating clouds, oh oh

Under the same sky, at different places
Because you and i are dangerous
I am leaving you
One letter difference from â€˜nimâ€™^
Itâ€™s cowardly but iâ€™m hiding because iâ€™m not good enough
Cruel breakup is like the end of the road of love
No words can comfort me
Perhaps my lifetimeâ€™s last melodrama
Now its final curtain is coming down

I was born and i met you
And i have loved you to death
My cold heart that has been dyed blue
Even with my eyes closed, i canâ€™t feel you

The winter had passed
And the spring has come
We have withered
And our hearts are bruised from longing

(iâ€™m singing my blues)
Used to the blue tears, blue sorrow
(iâ€™m singing my blues)
The love that i have sent away with the floating clouds, oh oh

I feel like my heart has stopped beating
You and i, frozen there, after a war
Trauma, that has been carved in my head

Once these tears dry up, i will moistly remember my love
Iâ€™m neither painful nor lonely
Happiness is all self-talk
I canâ€™t stand something more complicated
Itâ€™s no big deal, i donâ€™t care
Inevitable wandering, people come and go

I was born and i met you
And i have loved you to death
My cold heart that has been dyed blue
Even if you have left, iâ€™m still here

(iâ€™m singing my blues)
Used to the blue tears, blue sorrow
(iâ€™m singing my blues)
The love that i have sent away with the floating clouds, oh oh

Again tonight, underneath that blue moonlight
I will probably fall asleep alone
Even in my dreams, i look for you
And wander around while singing this song

(iâ€™m singing my blues)
Used to the blue tears, blue sorrow
(iâ€™m singing my blues)
The love that i have sent away with the floating clouds, oh oh

(iâ€™m singing my blues)
Used to the blue tears, blue sorrow
(iâ€™m singing my blues)
The love that i have sent away with the floating clouds, oh oh
