

Don't Let It Be Love

Bowling for Soup

I was out on the front line
Doing just fine
Put it all behind me
'Til I came across a letter
From an old friend Asking, "How you been?"
Stopped me dead in my tracks
And shot me right back there to '02
And it was me and you
What am I supposed to say? I hope I don't fall head over heels
'Cause I know how it's gonna feel
And I don't think I could live
Through you again So don't, don't, don't
Let it be love, love, love
Because it hurts a lot, like it or not
If it comes down to love or money It won't be love, love, love
It won't be love, love, love
And I know I should know better
Man, I hate this stuff
Don't let it be love Let's think in the front line
I'm on the drop line
So reel me in, bash me over the head
Wish I was dead Time heals everything
Time heals everything
At least that's what I've read
Here we go again We're head over heels
And I know how it's gonna feel
When it crashes and it burns
It'll be too much So don't, don't, don't
Let it be love, love, love
Because it hurts a lot, like it or not
If it comes down to love or money It won't be love, love, love
It won't be love, love, love
And I know I should know better
Man, I hate this stuff
Don't let it be love And if I ever hear that song again
I just might kill someone
Not literally
But the thought has crossed my mind So don't, don't, don't
Let it be love, love, love

Don't let it be love, love, love
I'm much better with
Wham, bam, thank you, Ma'am So don't, don't, don't
Let it be love, love, love
Because it hurts a lot, like it or not
If it comes down to love or money It won't be love, love, love
It won't be love, love, love
And I know I should know better
Man, I hate this stuff
Don't let it be love

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnllyrics.com/>