We Believe

Red Hot Chili Peppers

The curtain is open a head to put dope in

Now we will come clean it the future we've seen it

No, no, I know, I said, no noIt's like a dream that falls away

Into the night where we can play

I'm on a train one happy day

Two eyes for sight three times I praySoda pop we've got to set up shop

And when the weather comes we've got a pressure drop

We don't know but every day I go

To see what I can bring into a cameo, oh oh, oh noWe believe, we believeClimb a tree for monkey business

Write a check out to forgiveness

All the world on half an acre

Pushing dirt into a quakerThe mission, the method

The downfall arrested

'Cause it's not the first time

Nor is it the worst time, no no, oh noTo see the bird without a care

For in a word it's nice out there

In a tree my mama bear

Will be all right with proper care

Hey hey, heyBoomerang into a bigger bang

A little cry of love because they cannot sing

Cherokee, what did the pharaoh see?

Another time and space another place to be We believe, we believe

We believe, we believeClimb a tree for monkey business

Write a check out to forgiveness

All the world on half an acre

Pushing dirt into a quakerClimb a tree for monkey business

Write a check out to forgiveness

All the world on half an acre

Pushing dirt into a quakerThe motive, the measure

The purpose, the pleasure

The risk, is it worth it?

The disc, is it perfect? I found you amongst them

The flower with young stem

Disparage, the broken

The marriage, elopin'
