Stranger

Elisa

Stranger you look so different
Some other thoughts fill up your mind
And you just made it happen
Got me thinking 'bout you in my life
And now I hope that my wish's not too weak
I hope that my will is enough enough
'cause you made it all good for me yeah
You made it all right
You made it all good for me yeah
You made it just fine
Strange can you forgive me
If it sounds like I know you too well
It's just that you
Have been like water when I was feeling so thirsty
Oh and now, I think of you though you don't know
The reason why I love you so
But never mind
'cause you made me it all good for me yeah
You made it all right
You made it all good for me yeah
You made it just fine
Stranger can you forgive me
If it sounds like I know you too well?
It's just that you
Have been like water when I was feeling so thirsty

Oh and now; I think of you though you don't know
The reason why I love you so
But never mind
But never mind
'cause you made me it all good for me yeah
You made it all right
You made it all good for me yeah
You made it just fine
Could you feel higher
Yet I know it'd be too much for your love
It'd be sad to wait for anything your anything..
So I sing.
I sing the words that I would say to you

I sing the time that I would spend with you with you..
'cause you made me it all good to me yeah
You made it all right
You made it all good for me yeah
You made it just fine
Could you feel higher
Could I feel better
Could I feel higher
Stranger you look so different
Some other thoughts fill up my mind
And you just made it happen
Got me thinking of you in my life
