Dragonheart

The Kovenant

We demand a change of seasons
Aurora painted black
Elemental subtraction
The presence lost it's time
For those yet to witness
For those yet to see
Breathe and bathe in anticipation
Of life's hypocrisy
Distorted by the essence - completed by lies
Decieved by the crystal void - configurate in passion
So bold in it's disguise - this be the fate of mankind
A greater cosmic vision - let the fires roar!
The astral bewitchment is at hand
The planetary black elements
Reveals it's dragonheart...
We demand a change of existance
And who are you to defy?
Ironic is the worlds dismay...
We command and you obey!
Distorted by the essence - completed by lies
Decieved by the crystal void - configurate in passion
So bold in it's disguise - this be the fate of mankind
A greater cosmic vision - let the fires roar!
The astral bewitchment is at hand
The planetary black elements
Reveals it's dragonheart...
