Salvo

Bolt Thrower

Out beyond the recon-point
Battle weary, nerves now frayed
One step closer to oblivion
Abandoned life the price to payThe final sacrifice - ushered to the grave
There is no time to run or hide
No chance to prayMankind's legacy - past knowledge saved
Glory not given - respect is madeStranded in no mans land
Water always tastes the same
Trapped within this shell hole
There is no shelter from the steel rain
Dead men againStill unchallenged
Forging on
No respite
Until this war is wonRelentless barrage never ceasing
Artillery has found its range
Caught within the crossfire
There is no shelter from the steel rain
Dead men againWhite-hot shrapnel fills the skyAdvancing ever onwards
Conditioned reflex feel no pain
At the point beyond insane
There is no shelter from the steel rainThere is no shelter from the steel rain
Dead men again
