You Cannot Fail

The Wednesdays

Dude you came through so many changes
Many places, many faces.... looking into other eyes past all the lies into the space between yet will I fail.. will I fail..

Fearing to fail.. the karma of being male wanting so much to hear.. from the one has disappeared
The truth of the self, the blessing from the king nurturing from the soul to the soul
yet will I fail... will I fail

In the unfocused mirror I see the warrior then again the Shaman, and next the lover I see behind me my father's eyes
gazing and glowing with pride and fire
I cannot fail... I cannot fail... I cannot fail..

I see behind me my father's eyes
gazing and glowing with pride and fire
I cannot fail... I cannot fail... I cannot fail
