

No One Understands

Berman

you moved on without me one day we'll see things the same feeling sorry i ever felt this way feeling sorry with no one else to blame time on my side and a head full of dreams that no one understands but me i'm feelin' fine with this head full of dreams and no one understands but me i never saw it coming i expected maturity somehow feeling sorry i ever said i cared feeling sorry but i'll let go for now
