Unto Us a Son Is Given

Michael Card

Unto us a son is given, unto us a child is born
He will be our king forever, he will reign on David's throneWondrous Counselor, Mighty God, Eternal Father, Prince of Peace
Of his reign and of his kingdom, never ending its increaseUnto us a son is given, unto us a child is born
He will be our king forever, he will reign on David's throneIn love a throne will be established, in faithfulness will we sit down
For our garments his salvation, everlasting joy our crownHe will be despised, rejected; a man of sorrows he will be
Cruelly pierced for our transgressions, crushed for our iniquities
For his wounds are for our healing, and his promise meant our peace
He'll bind up the brokenhearted, grant the captives their releaseUnto us a son is given, unto us a child is born
He will be our king forever, he will reign on David's throne
He will reign on David's throne
