

Live By the Water

Papas Fritas

We've been living in the city such a long time
Maybe we should live by the water
I'll shape up and you'll fill out and we could buy a house
Maybe even have us a daughterCause the city brings the man out in the man
And it makes it hard for me to understand
Your feelingsI'm so tired of catching trains and coming home late
I might even try and cook dinner
I'll make contacts in the trees the boss says I could
He thinks I should live by the water
Shut the door and dim the lights and fix yourself a drink
I got something we should consider
We've been living in the city such a long time
Maybe we should live by the water
