You Better Wait

Steve Perry

She was only a child
Someone to hold on
Only a child
Someone to believe inOnly a child
Someone to love
She was 17, beauty queen
I met her in a magazineHeart of fire, love's desire
Reachin' out higher, higher
Runaway, one more day
A broken hearted child at playI pray for you, baby blue
In the name of love I reach for you
In the darkness comes the evil of the night
Think about it(You better wait)
Stop yourself before you fall
(You better wait)
Stop before you lose it all
Somewhere there's love
Oh, somewhere, somewherePrecious girl, little pearl
Temptation is lonely world
Eyes deceive, they believe
In everything they wanna see, yeahAnd the neon lights reflect your life
Only you know where you hide, baby(You better wait)
Stop yourself before you fall
(You better wait)
Stop before you lose it all
'Cause somewhere there's love(You better wait)
Stop yourself before you start
(You better wait)
Don't look back, don't lose heartDon't look, don't look
Don't look back, baby
Don't, don't look, don't look
Don't look back, baby
