I want you to call me by my name when I am lying on your bed (By my name)
I pray you to stay away while I'm talking with your friends (Stay away)
I need you to be around my legs and stop complaining about the rainAnd how could I show you without looking freaking mad that I am not always gonna be around
And how could I show you without loosing all our time
that I am not always gonna run behind
And why, (oh why?) you are on my mind.I need you to feel like a man when I give you all I am (Like a man)
I know you're not hangover today
You are classifying your cassettes (Your cassettes)
And hey you just can't share my mistakes
Oh man I'm trying all my best (All my best)
And how could I show you without looking freaking mad
that I am not always gonna be around
And how could I show you without loosing all our time
that I am not always gonna run behind
And why, (oh why?) you are on my mind.I want you to call me by my name when I am lying on your bed (By my name)
I need you to feel like a man when I give you all I am (Like a man)
I know you're not hangover today
You are classifying your cassettes (Your cassettes)
