The Last Era

Steignyr

Fighting to the unleashed force
The fire give way to the ashes There's no more child, only mens mens who fight for the last era

End of ends
No weapon works now
This is the price of peace
There's nothing we can do

Earth of ashes
World in doom
Land for madness
War is only waiting for you

Now it's time for the courage's sword Give way to the shadows warriors
This is the land of the wisdom glory
Now the last era is coming

Force in our souls is only what we need
The honor and pride are nothing now nothing for fight to the last era

End of ends
any creature won't live now
The fourth black night is destroying what you are

No more borns
we're only mens fighting to live
The dark of ashes are shading the war for the last era
