

Baker Street

Livingston Taylor

Winding your way down on Baker Street
Light in your head and dead on your feet
Another crazy day, you drink the night away
 And forget about everything
This city's dance makes you feel so cold
Its got so many people, but its got no soul
And its taken you so long to find out you were wrong
 When you thought it had everything
 You used to think that it was so easy
 You used to say that it was so easy
 But you're trying, you're trying now
 Another year and then you'll be happy
 Just one more year and then you'll be happy
 But you're crying, you're crying now
Way down the street there's a light in his place

Opens the door, he's got that look on his face
 And he asks where you've been
 You tell him who you've seen
 And you talk about everything
He's got this dream about buying some land
He's gonna give up the crack and the one night stands
 And then he'll settle down in this quiet little town
 And forget about everything
 But you know he'll always keep moving
 You know he's never gonna stop moving
 'Cause he's rolling, he's a rolling stone
 When you wake up, it's a new morning
 The sun is shining, it's a new morning
 But you're going, you're going home
