

Every Thug Needs a Lady

Alkaline Trio

I know it's dark here you know that I'm scared, too
For some reason right now of everything but you
Right now, you're all that I recognize
You know I came here when I needed your soft voice
I needed to hear something that sounded like an answer
And I'll wait here and sometimes I get one It's nothing I'll forget when the moon gets tired
You're stuck to me every day
Believe in what I am because it's all I have today
And tomorrow who knows where we'll be From here I can hardly see a thing
But I will follow anyone who brings me to you
For now, forever, for on and on and on You know it starts here outside waiting in the cold
Kiss me once in the snow I swear it never gets old
And I will promise you I can make it warmer next year
You know I came here when I needed your soft voice
I needed to hear something that sounded like an answer
Now I'll stay here and everyday I get one It's nothing I'll forget when the moon gets tired
You're stuck to me every day
Believe in what I am because it's all I have today
And tomorrow who knows where we'll be From here I can hardly see a thing
But I will follow anyone who brings me to you
For now, forever, for on and on and on So go plug in your electric blanket
We could stay here till our southern summer wedding day
Go plug in your electric blanket
We can stay here
