

Lost Without a Name

Alex Parks

Nobody knows this girls name she hides behind
A broken wall of secrets, she built with time
And as you drop your change, do you see her eyes? She seems lost without a name, a child who's lost her way
She made the ways to be found, she doesn't hear
The sound of her mother cry
Darling come home and dont you be alone
She said goodbye so long ago Nobody wants this girls name, bruise [Incomprehensible] life stained Theres more than you can see there, she cries tears of pain
And as you drop your change, do you see her eyes? She seems lost without a name, a child whos lost her way
She made the ways to be found, she doesn't hear
The sound of her mother cry
Darling, come home and dont you be alone
She said goodbye so long ago
So long ago
