

The Eyes Of A New York Woman

B.J. Thomas

Who's the one who tied your shoe when you were young
And knew just when to come and see what you had done?

Mama, oh mama

And who's the one who patched your eye and told you not to cry
'cause he was too big for you to try?

Mama, ma-a-ma And who's the one you didn't need to plead
To give her time to the little league?

It was mama, oh, ma-a-a-ma-a-a

And who's the one who gave her shoulder

When you told her your first love was over she'd met someone older

Mama, mama It was mama, my ma-a-a-ma-a-a Ma-a-ma, oh ma-a-ma Who's the one who taught you obligation then dedication result graduation?

Mama, mama

And who's the one who's shown the friends you've known
A home away from home when they were tired and all alone?

Mama, mama And who's the one who held a tear inside
When you introduced your future bride?

And who's the one who didn't mean to cry

As you walked down the aisle, the tears you saw her smile

Mama, oh, mama

Ma-a-m-a-a, my ma-a-ma-a

It was ma-a-m-a-a
