

Spike In My Veins

KoÑ•n

We are the ones taking all the pain
Falling on our faces
They don't care anyway
Anyway, now

You're the one that makes me feel like I'm alive
You're the one that pushes me all the time
All the time, nowWe are hard and grey
Always fate, to do what they say
Calling me deranged

Feeling power, I must take its place some wayNever gonna run away
Seeking out the path
But the pain always gets in the way
Slowly watch me die
I'm insane, so dangerous
Don't you dare get in my way
Throwing in the towel
Got me strained, so betrayed
Get the fuck out of my way

Looking at my thoughts, I take my time

Pounding all these spikes in my veinsWe are the ones reaching out in vain
Trying to solve our problems
They won't go away, go away now

You're the one that makes me feel like I'm alive
You're the one that pushes me all the time
All the time, nowWe are hard and grey
Always fate to do what they say
Calling me deranged

Feeling power, I must take its place some wayNever gonna run away
Seeking out my path
But the pain always gets in the way
Slowly watch me die
I'm insane, so dangerous
Don't you dare get in my way
Throwing in the towel
Got me strained, so betrayed
Get the fuck out of my way

Looking at my thoughts, I take my time

Pounding all these spikes in my veinsPounding all these spikes in my veins
Pounding all these spikes in my veins

Pounding all these spikes in my veinsNever gonna run away

Seeking out my path

But the pain always gets in the way

Slowly watch me die

I'm insane, so dangerous

Don't you dare get in my way

Throwing in the towel

Got me strained, so betrayed

Get the fuck out of my way

Looking at my thoughts, I take my time

Pounding all these spikes in my veinsPounding all these spikes in my veins

Pounding all these spikes in my veins

Looking at my thoughts, I take my time

Pounding all these spikes in my veins
