Pray

Clem Snide

Pray for the non believer
Pray for the non believer
Pray for the non believer
Pray for the non believerAnd praise heart felt, searching fails
To navigate the twisted trails
Pray on him, the golden light not shineAnd praise guard dogs, lose the scent
The snakes find shelter in his tent
Pray the puddles reach beyond his kneesPray for the non believer
Pray for the non believer
Pray for the non believer
Pray for the non believerAnd pray the shiny meadow tools
Lay rusting in his swimming pool
Pray the water never wash him cleanPraise [Incomprehensible] long to feel
A strangers hand to break the seal
Pray the bedsheets tied in stubborn knotsPray for the non believer
Pray for the non believer
Pray for the non believer
Pray for the non believer
Pray for the non believer
Pray for the non believerPray the darkness eats his life
Behind, as I lit painted white
Pray the hungry bird consumes his heart
Pray the hungry bird consumes his heartWhen somebody loves you
It's no good, it's no good, it's no good
Unless he loves you all the wayWhen somebody loves you
It's no good, it's no good, it's no good
Unless he loves you all the way, all the way
