English Translation:How did we break up?
Those times felt like a lie
It can't be, I can't be, I tell myself
Memories fill up my room
Our times were like a dream
But it's over, I'm crying because it's overLike the wind blowing
Come fly to me
For one day, just one day
Let's live in that time
I bury my face but tears still rise
I'm afraid of the time ticking
I guess it's really overNot a single trace of light in the darkness
Cruel looks headed toward me
It's over, it has withered, I tell myself
Where did I go?
I'm in a place where I don't even know
Hidden, dropped offLike the wind blowing
Come fly to me
For one day, just one day
Let's live in that time
I bury my face but tears still rise
I'm afraid of the time ticking
I guess it's really overI'm walking with the memories
That have faded in my tears
I feel your warm hands
Come back to me
Help me, only you can save me
But you keep pushing me away
Where are you going?
I love you
I only love you
I can't stand a single day
Not a single day, not a single day
