To Change Your Heart

Carlene Carter

In black and white, unspoken words
Sitting by and as hard as stone
The terms of greed
one pact thats kept by thieves
Will live their part for the rest of our yearsThe change of address
Change of lent
Change of linen
To hide the shameThe change of mind,
Could change the way you feel
The painful truth
Is all to real[Chorus]
What can I say
To change your heart
Oh tell me, in simple words
The rain of hope, to the light this storm
What can I say
To change you heartI live my life
I live my alone
Cant help but think you'd come back home
But I cant forget a drink and then I cry
Said no forgiveness in your heart
She'll never try[Chorus]Well meeting friends
Don't understand what wont let go
We start again
I cant explain, the dream the spot that guides
One day we'll wake up, side by side[Chorus]What can I say
To change you heart
