

Flowers

Hurt

the children will sing a song in the streets it sounds like the 23rd psalm to the music of 21 guns the flowers are dead in a vase by the bed the place where the old woman died it's the place where she started her life the papers will all say her name but probably print the wrong date the day that she died
cause we're all gonna die cute little puppies, and bunnies, and birds people who sing when they don't know the words, you will die
it's just part of life all men, women, children hermaphrodites too animals, aliens, and certainly you
cause everyone dies and all that was ever and all that will be single celled creatures anything green
start saying goodbye!
from the moment you start up the miserable life you should know that it's only a matter of time

'til you die
and the morons at labels who think they know tunes the army of lawyers that threaten to sue the hookers that blow them when I just want food and the asshats that download and never bought tunes you should die

i can't wait til you die all protestants, catholics, and orthodox jews you dumb scientologists and guys who bend spoons well buddhists, err... sort of and atheist's too all you wackjob believers nobody's immune
KISS YOUR ASS GOODBYE and sarcastic songwriters guys with tattoos drummers and bassists
and engineers too and every last person that sang in this room they will die
yeah we're all gonna die
and it's just a reminder of something that's frequently known...
