I Hate Danger

Bikini Kill

I said I wanna come over you said 'ok just come over' your friends are all on the couch your friends said 'let's walk around'
I'll pretend your friends are my friends and kinda try not to offend them but I won't let you see anything real let you know, there's limits to--
CHORUS:
I stopped talking an hour ago
I stopped talking an hour ago
I stopped talking an hour ago
I stopeed talking an hour ago
It's a predictable point of view this group dynamic caters to it's a particular point of view I think you know when it caters to you (and if you do know don't act like you don't 'cause it's really annoying, and if you don't know, well, let's just say, you're a lot lot stupider than I thought.)
I'll pretend your friends are my friends but I don't wanna hear you defend them in fact that kind of insults me and I kinda don't really wanna be here right--
CHORUS:
I stopped talking an hour ago
I stopped talking an hour ago
I stopped talking an hour ago
I stopped talking an hour ago, ago...
OK: Your whole thing put me in negative space for way too long the only thing I managed to say during that time was 'I hate danger'. what I really should have said is:
'you're so not dangerous. you're so not what you say you are at all.'
