You Know Where To Find Me

Matthew West

I saw your sky fall down today
Suddenly turn from blue to gray
Till one by one the raindrops
Turned to tears upon your face
Wish there was something I could do
Wish I could ease the pain from you
But I've never felt so helpless
It's like you're drowning right in front of me
And I'm reaching out but you can't see
There's something holding on to you so tight
So I guess this is all I'll say to you tonight
If you ever need me, you know where to find me
I will be waiting where I've always been
If you ever need me, you know where to find me
I have never left you, I'm where I've always been Right by your side, right by your side
If the whole wide world is on your back
If the strength you need is the strength you lack
If you're in a crowd but all alone
If you can't stay here but you can't go home
If you can't answer all the why's
'Cause your to tired to reach that high
I want you to remember yeah, yeah
If you ever need me, you know where to find me
I will be waiting where I've always been
If you ever need me, you know where to find me
I have never left you, I'm where I've always been
Right by your side, I'm right by your side
So if the whole wide world is on your back
If the strength you need is the strength you lack
If you're in a crowd but all alone
If you can't stay here but you can't go home
If you can't answer all the why's
'Cause you're to tired to reach that high
I want you to, I need you to remember
If you ever need me
You know where to find me
I will be waiting where I've always been
If you ever need me, you know where to find me

I have never left you, I'm where I've always been
Right by your side, I'm right by your side
I'm right by your side, right by your side
I'm right by your side
