Living all alone do I need security, no!

I got 20 locks upon my doors

Do they give me guarantees, no!I bought a gun now!

I have a gun now!

I wear a gun now!

And I always keep it loadedWhat's going on I hold my breath

To hear the noise, yeah!

My heart is beating in my throat

Did I heard a voice, no!I bought a gun now!

I have a gun now!

I wear a gun now!

And I always keep it loadedI'm living with a growing fear

I'm aiming at every single noize I hear

My dog's going crazy

But I'm glad that he's around

Even though we can't communicate

We both listen for a soundMy dog's going crazy

But I'm glad that he's around

Even though we can't communicate

We both listen for a soundDo I have the door shut, my room, my windows locked

From the moment I see a stranger

On my property I will blow him away

From the moment I find someone in my house I won't hesitateFrom the moment I hear someone

From the moment I see someone

From the moment I'll shoot someone

And I'll do it anyway
