

Sad Sad World

Sheryl Crow

I know you hate me, I see that now
If I was unhappy I'd be someone you could still care about
I think it's stupid and sad that everything turned out so bad
And enemies make the most interesting friends I'm gonna write you a long letter
I'm gonna get you on the telephone
Three little words to make it all better
Maybe I'll leave this whole thing alone Oh, it's a sad, sad world without you in it
And I'm a bad, bad girl for letting you down
And I remember every crazy minute
Oh, it's a sad, sad world without you around We're too much alike for our own good
We both hate fighting, no matter how misunderstood
Well, I wanna tell you that you're stubborn
I wanna tell you, I never lied And I wanna tell you
That your friends talk way too much
And I wanna know
What happened to that friend of mine Oh, it's a sad, sad world without you in it
And I was a bad, bad girl for letting you down
And I remember every crazy minute
Oh, it's a sad, sad world without you around Oh, it's a sad, sad world without you in it
And I'm a bad, bad girl for letting you down
I remember every fucked up minute
Oh, it's a sad, sad world without you around

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnlyrics.com/>