Sleep With Me Instead

Louise Goffin

Suddenly everything is new
Bring your blanket to my room
It's so fun to be your friend
Since you threw you out againI'm not saying I'm not sad
It's just that I don't feel that bad
Lay your blanket on my bed
Then you can sleep with me insteadTelephone is ringing
I don't care who it might be, it's not for me
With Frank Sinatra singing
And you stretched up on my bed, like I saidI'm not saying I'm not sad
It's just that I don't feel that bad
So lay your blanket on my bed
You can sleep with me insteadIt's been your occupation
To go with other women who never knew you
Here's the situation
I'll tell you like I've always known, welcome home, welcome homeI'm not saying I'm not sad
It's just that I don't feel that bad
Lay your blanket on my bed
You can sleep with me insteadYou can sleep
